Where the forest whispers and summer lingers – Your fairytale cottage in Soomra

50 000 €

In a hidden green nook, far from the noise of the city and wrapped in the gentle touch of the wind, there stands a little cottage – as if it had stepped out of a fairytale. This isn't just a house – it's a place where summer lives.

A magical hideaway at the edge of the woods

Warm walls that have heard laughter and quiet mornings. Sunbeams playing on the floor like children. Within these walls, peace breathes gently. The living room and kitchen feel like a grandmother's embrace – familiar, safe, and full of heart. Upstairs, a cozy bedroom awaits, where on some nights, you might catch a glimpse of shooting stars through the window.

A sauna that holds secrets in its steam

When smoke rises slowly from the chimney and the wood crackles beneath the stove, a silence arrives – the kind that speaks louder than words. This sauna is a little sanctuary, where worries melt away and new dreams are born.

A garden where time walks at its own pace

There's something enchanted about this garden. Apple trees that give generously, gooseberry bushes hiding beneath tall grass, and an old chestnut tree under whose branches you can swing until the world is forgotten. This is where childhood memories are planted – the kind that stay with you forever.

A terrace where every moment matters

Whether you're alone or with someone dear – this place doesn't ask for words. It speaks the quiet language of presence. Mornings taste like coffee, and evenings smell of summer, rain, or jasmine. Sometimes, that's all you need.

A place you'll return to – again and again

There are places that call to you. Not loudly, but gently – straight to your heart. This cottage doesn't shout – it waits. And if you're searching for something real, where summer days stretch long and the nights are full of stars, then perhaps... this is the next chapter in your story.

Come and feel it for yourself. Some places don't need long explanations – they simply need to be experienced.
